Day 1 | October 12

Depart your home city for Rome, Italy.

Day 2 | October 13 R

Rome, Italy

Arrive in Rome, transfer and check in to the deluxe Sina Bernini Bristol near the pretty Piazza Barberini.

Get to know your fellow travelers during a Welcome Reception and raise a toast to your upcoming journey.

Day 3 | October 14 B-L

Rome | Alban Hills

After breakfast, set out to explore the Castelli Romani, a collection of charming towns dotting the volcanic landscape of the Alban Hills outside Rome. Begin in Grottaferrata to see the Abbey of Santa Maria di Grottaferrata, a historic edifice founded by St. Nilus in A.D. 1004. Continue to Castel Gandolfo, perched above the volcanic crater Lake Albano. This medieval town is the most famous within the Castelli Romani, widely recognized for housing Catholic popes during the summer months since the 16th century. Join a guided visit of Papal Palace to witness the papal apartments and Cappella Privata del Papa, the private chapel within the residence. Next, sample fresh country cuisine during lunch at a family restaurant offering views of Lake Albano.

Return to Rome for an evening at leisure.

Day 4 | October 15 B

Rome | Vatican City

Spend the morning at Vatican City, a designated UNESCO World Heritage Site and the smallest country in the world. Attend an exclusive early-morning opening of the Vatican Museum and witness the ritualistic unlocking led by the Clavigero. A private tour of the Vatican Museum follows the ritual. Awaken each gallery, including the Gallery of Candelabra, the Gallery of Tapestries and the Gallery of Maps before ending in the incomparable Sistine Chapel. Spend some quiet, reflective moments in the chapel. After breakfast, continue to the splendid St. Peter's Basilica. A new church was commissioned after the original shrine to St. Peter crumbled. All the great Roman Renaissance and baroque architects had input into its design, and Michaelangelo created the vast dome. Take in the sights and ambience of St. Peter's Square on your own before returning to the hotel.

Day 5 | October 16 B

Rome

Enjoy a full day at leisure to explore sights independently, such as the Spanish Steps Roman Colosseum and the Trevi Fountain.

Day 6 | October 17 B-L-D

Rome | Board La Dolce Vita

Following breakfast, check out of your hotel. Then, enjoy a cooking demonstration and a hands-on experience where you learn to make authentic pasta with a professional chef. Dig into your creations for lunch.

Embark the lavish La Dolce Vita and experience the pinnacle of elegance on a two-night prestigious odyssey. This evening and all evenings on board, indulge in an exquisite Italian dinner prepared by a three-Michelin-starred chef and accompanied by live music.

Day 7 | October 18 B-L-D

Matera

The delectable aromas of homemade Italian cooking lure you to breakfast before disembarking in Matera. Located in the southern region of Basilicata, Matera is famous for its Sassi — historic cave dwellings built into the mountainside. Enjoy a guided walking tour of the UNESCO-listed Sassi, and wander through the complex of houses, churches and monasteries built into the natural caves. Proceed to visit the Hypogeum, an underground marvel. Savor lunch at a restaurant in the caves before meeting with local artisans to witness the creation of the Cucù, a traditional clay whistle with a long history. Painted with bright colors and made to resemble cockerels, Cucù are believed to have magical powers and can be found in many homes in the area.

Return to the train and savor dinner, a movable feast celebrating the finest Italian ingredients and wines.

Day 8 | October 19 B-L-D

Sulmona | Pescocostanzo | Rome | Disembark

The train arrives in Sulmona, the birthplace of first-century poet Ovid. Disembark La Dolce Vita and board the historic Ferrovie dei Parchi. Settle in perfectly restored carriages from the early 20th century and enjoy a slow journey along the Italian Trans-Siberian, one of the country's most panoramic and timeless rail routes. Inaugurated in 1897, the tracks connect the Adriatic and Tyrrhenian seas, passing through gorgeous mountain scenes, snow-capped beech forests, narrow gorges and national parks to Pescocostanzo, more than 4,000 feet above sea level. Take time to explore this medieval town, home to ancient craft skills such as lace making, filigree and wrought iron. Sit down to lunch at a local restaurant and spend time browsing artisan shops and boutiques.

Pescocostanzo, Italy

Enjoy a return train ride back to Sulmona to reboard La Dolce Vita.

Sip an aperitivo, followed by a memorable final dinner on the train while traveling back to Rome.

Disembark late this evening and transfer to a deluxe hotel in Rome.

Day 9 | October 20 B

Return to Home City

After breakfast, transfer to the airport for your flight back to your home city.

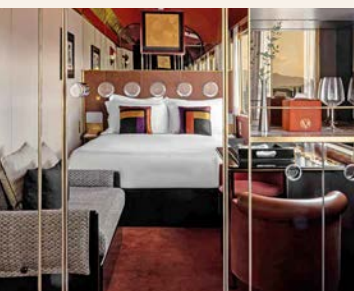

Note: This itinerary is subject to change due to local conditions.

Matera, Italy

La Dolce Vita Orient Express

Resplendent luxury and timeless elegance await aboard the new La Dolce Vita. Paying homage to “The Sweet Life,” when Italy experienced great artistic and cultural fervor in the 1960s, this remarkable 11-carriage train offers 12 deluxe cabins and 18 suites, all with sumptuous Italian design and expansive picture windows. Sip tempting elixirs in the Lounge Bar while a pianist tickles the ivories or partake in sophisticated gaming in the lounge area. Each evening, handwritten messages invite guests to Le Grand Soir, a festive five-star gastronomic experience featuring live music, captivating storytelling, the finest of Italian wines sourced by noted sommeliers and curated menus prepared by a three-Michelin-starred chef that showcase Italy’s vibrant culinary heritage.
